INTRODUCTION

The uncommon Childhood activities of Lord Krishna are inconceivable even to the most liberated souls. Great Sages like Satyavrata Muni, Narada Muni and Saunaka Rshi in the past prayed to the Lord - “O Lord, we simply wish that Your Form as Bala Gopala (Childhood Form) in Vrindavana may ever manifest in our hearts, for what is the use to us of any other boon besides this?....by Your Childhood Pastimes, You are drowning the inhabitants of Gokula in pools of ecstasy, and are revealing to those devotees whose pure love is imbued with intimacy and is free from all conceptions of awe and reverence.”

Generally, small children are very dear and lovable to everyone. Therefore, Lord Krishna- the Supreme Personality of Godhead, has kindly descended into this world and took the Childhood Form to be loved by all. Krishna's daily activities are Divinely inconceivable although they appear to be ordinary.

With the blessings of Srila Prabhupada, Vedic Arts takes pleasure in presenting the selected pastimes of Lord Krishna in a very attractive and picturesque story form. You will distinctively notice that the Children often get bored of reading too much of the story but they never get bored of looking at the pictures. Keeping this in view, we kept the written-matter precisely short because we let the pictures themselves speak a lot as we know ‘thousand words worth a picture’.

Hope you enjoy our Vedic Arts Creations which always endeavour to bring Krishna closer to you as your Friend with new and ever innovative ideas.

1. Daily, Mother Yasoda wakes up baby Krishna early in the morning. Singing with her sweet voice the glories of Krishna, she wants to feed Him.

2. After rising early in the morning, Mother Yasoda takes Krishna in her lap and gives him her breast milk with great affection and love.

3. Daily Mother Yasoda bathes, dresses and decorates Krishna with nice clothes, jewellerys and ornaments. While she decorates Krishna, other boys would try to help put on Krishna's ankle bells etc.

4. Krishna is always naughty and playful. He holds the calves' tails and runs behind them.

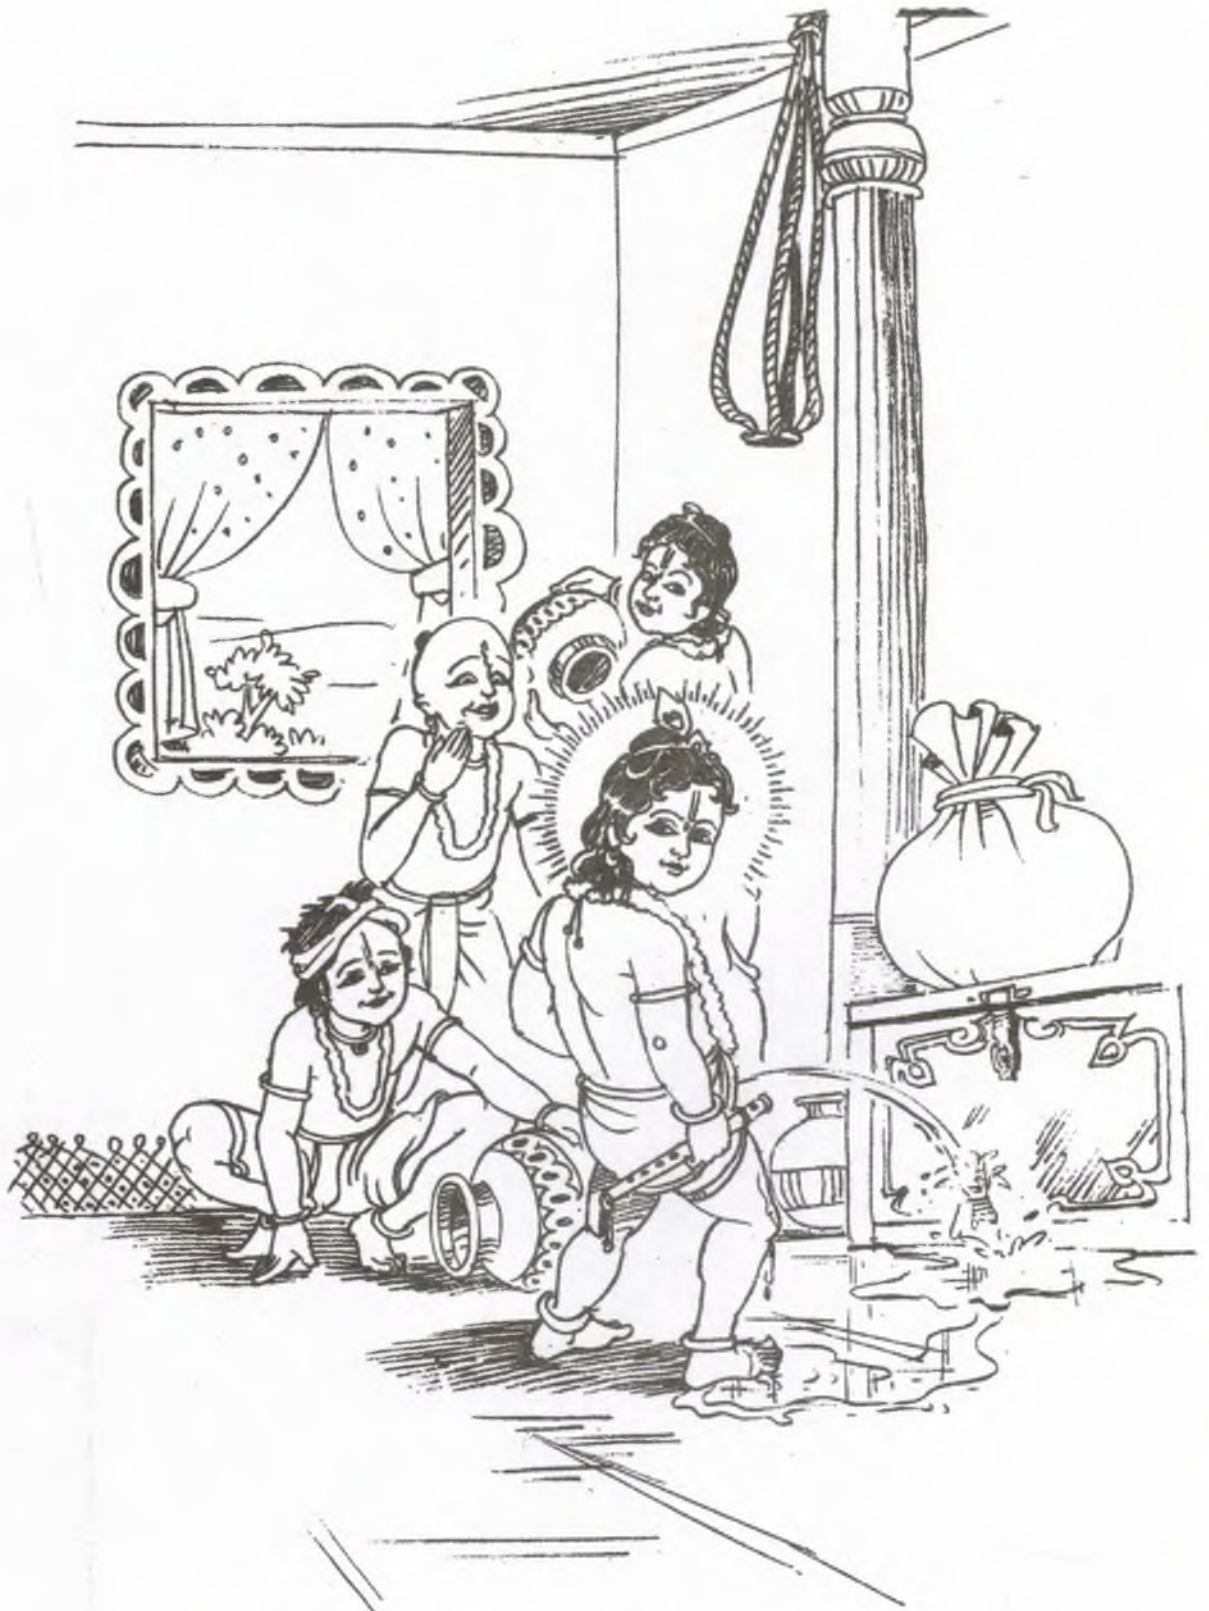

5. Krishna along with His elder brother, Balarama and other boys, steals the butter from the neighbor's house and the neighbors enjoy watching Him stealing.

6. Krishna takes pleasure in distributing the stolen butter to the monkeys.

7. Krishna escapes from cowherd men who try to punish Him when He mischievously releases the calves to drink the milk from their mothers.

8. Krishna passes urine in a nice and clean places of neighbor's houses when He can not find butter in their houses.

9. When the young girls carry curds and butter on their heads to sell, naughty Krishna teases and amuses them.

10. Krishna pinches the neighbour's kids to make them cry when He gets angry upon not finding butter in their houses.

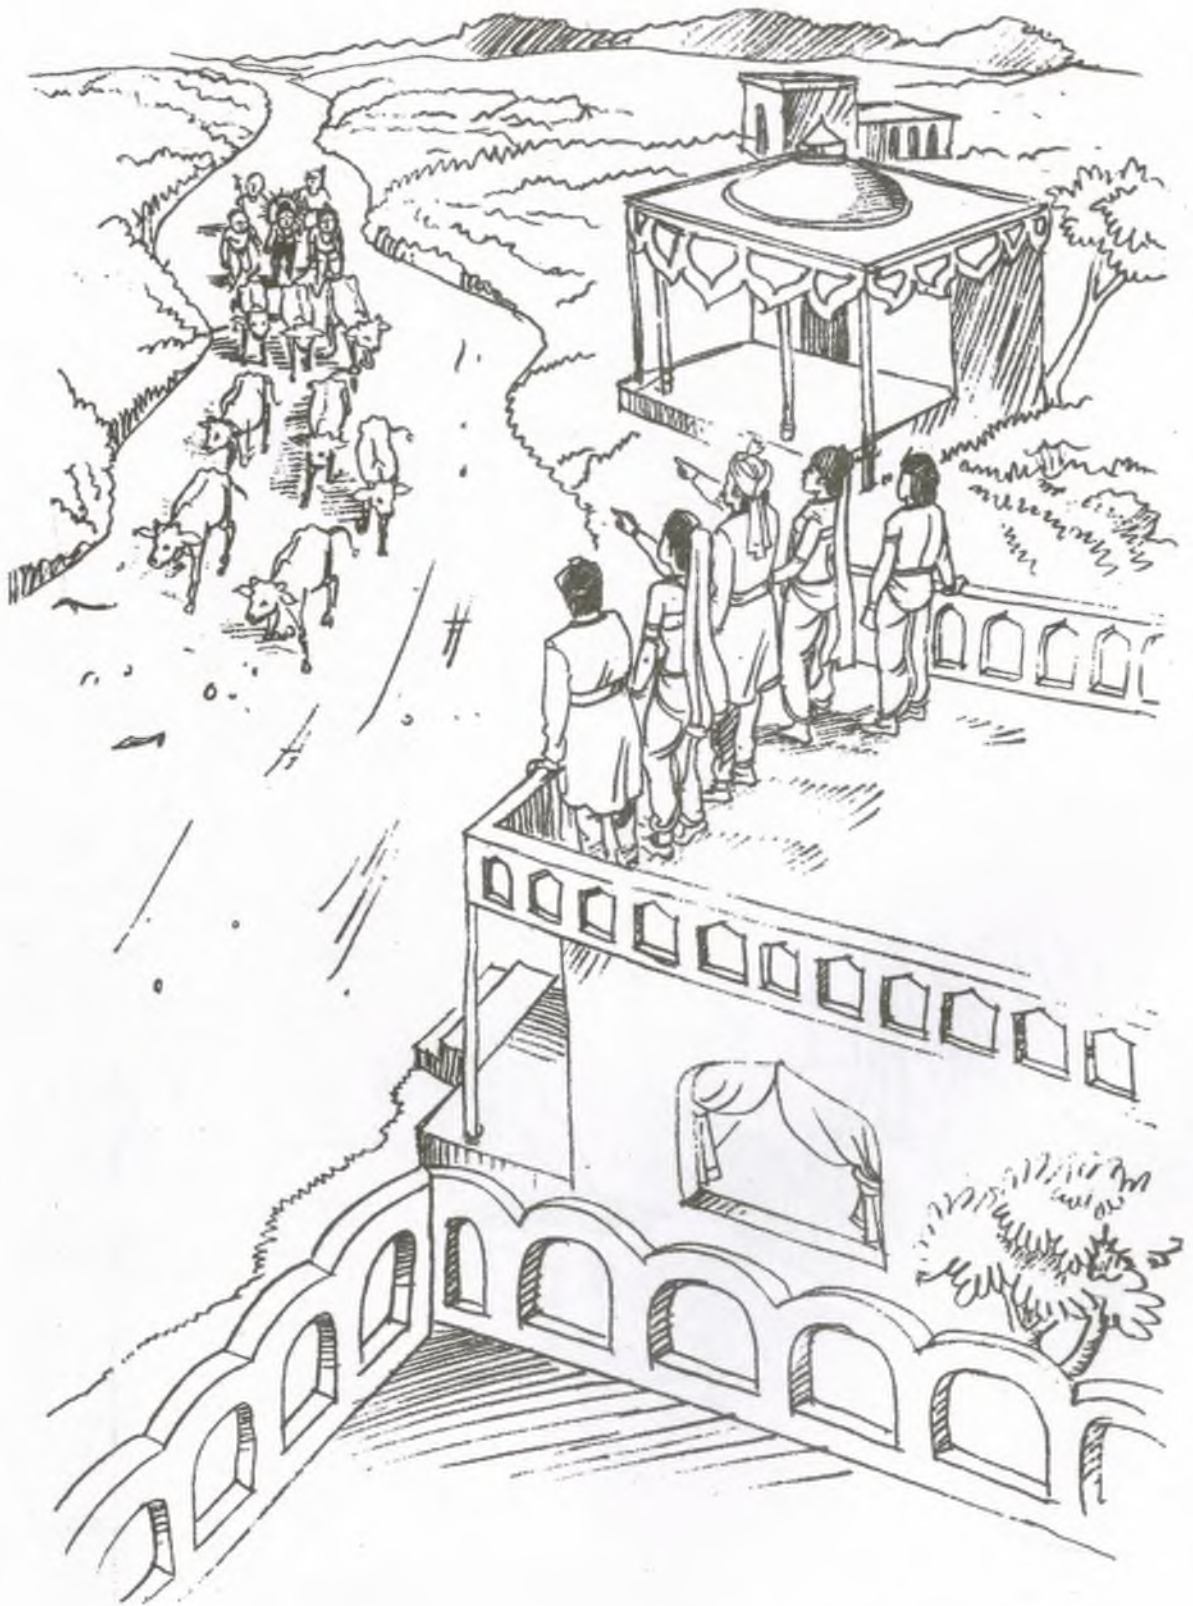

11. Krishna always carries His Flute with Him and when He plays on it, all the calves and His dear friends enchantingly get attracted to the sweet melody.

12. Krishna always imitates different birds and animals and plays with them.

13. Mother Yasoda calls Krishna if He is late for His lunch when He is still engaged in playing with His friends.

14. If Krishna comes late from the forest while He is out tending the calves, Nanda and Yasoda along with others anxiously look for Him from the roof tops.

15. Krishna plays with His friends "gulli-dand" as the village boys do.

16. Krishna plays tossing the tiffins while going to the forest with His friends to tend the calves.
