

THE OLD MAN AND THE YOUNG GIRL

Once the Muslim emperor Akbar had a conversation with his minister Birbal.

How long does one remain in lusty desires?

Up to the last point of death.

I can't believe this, how can you say that?

I will definitely
prove it
on time.

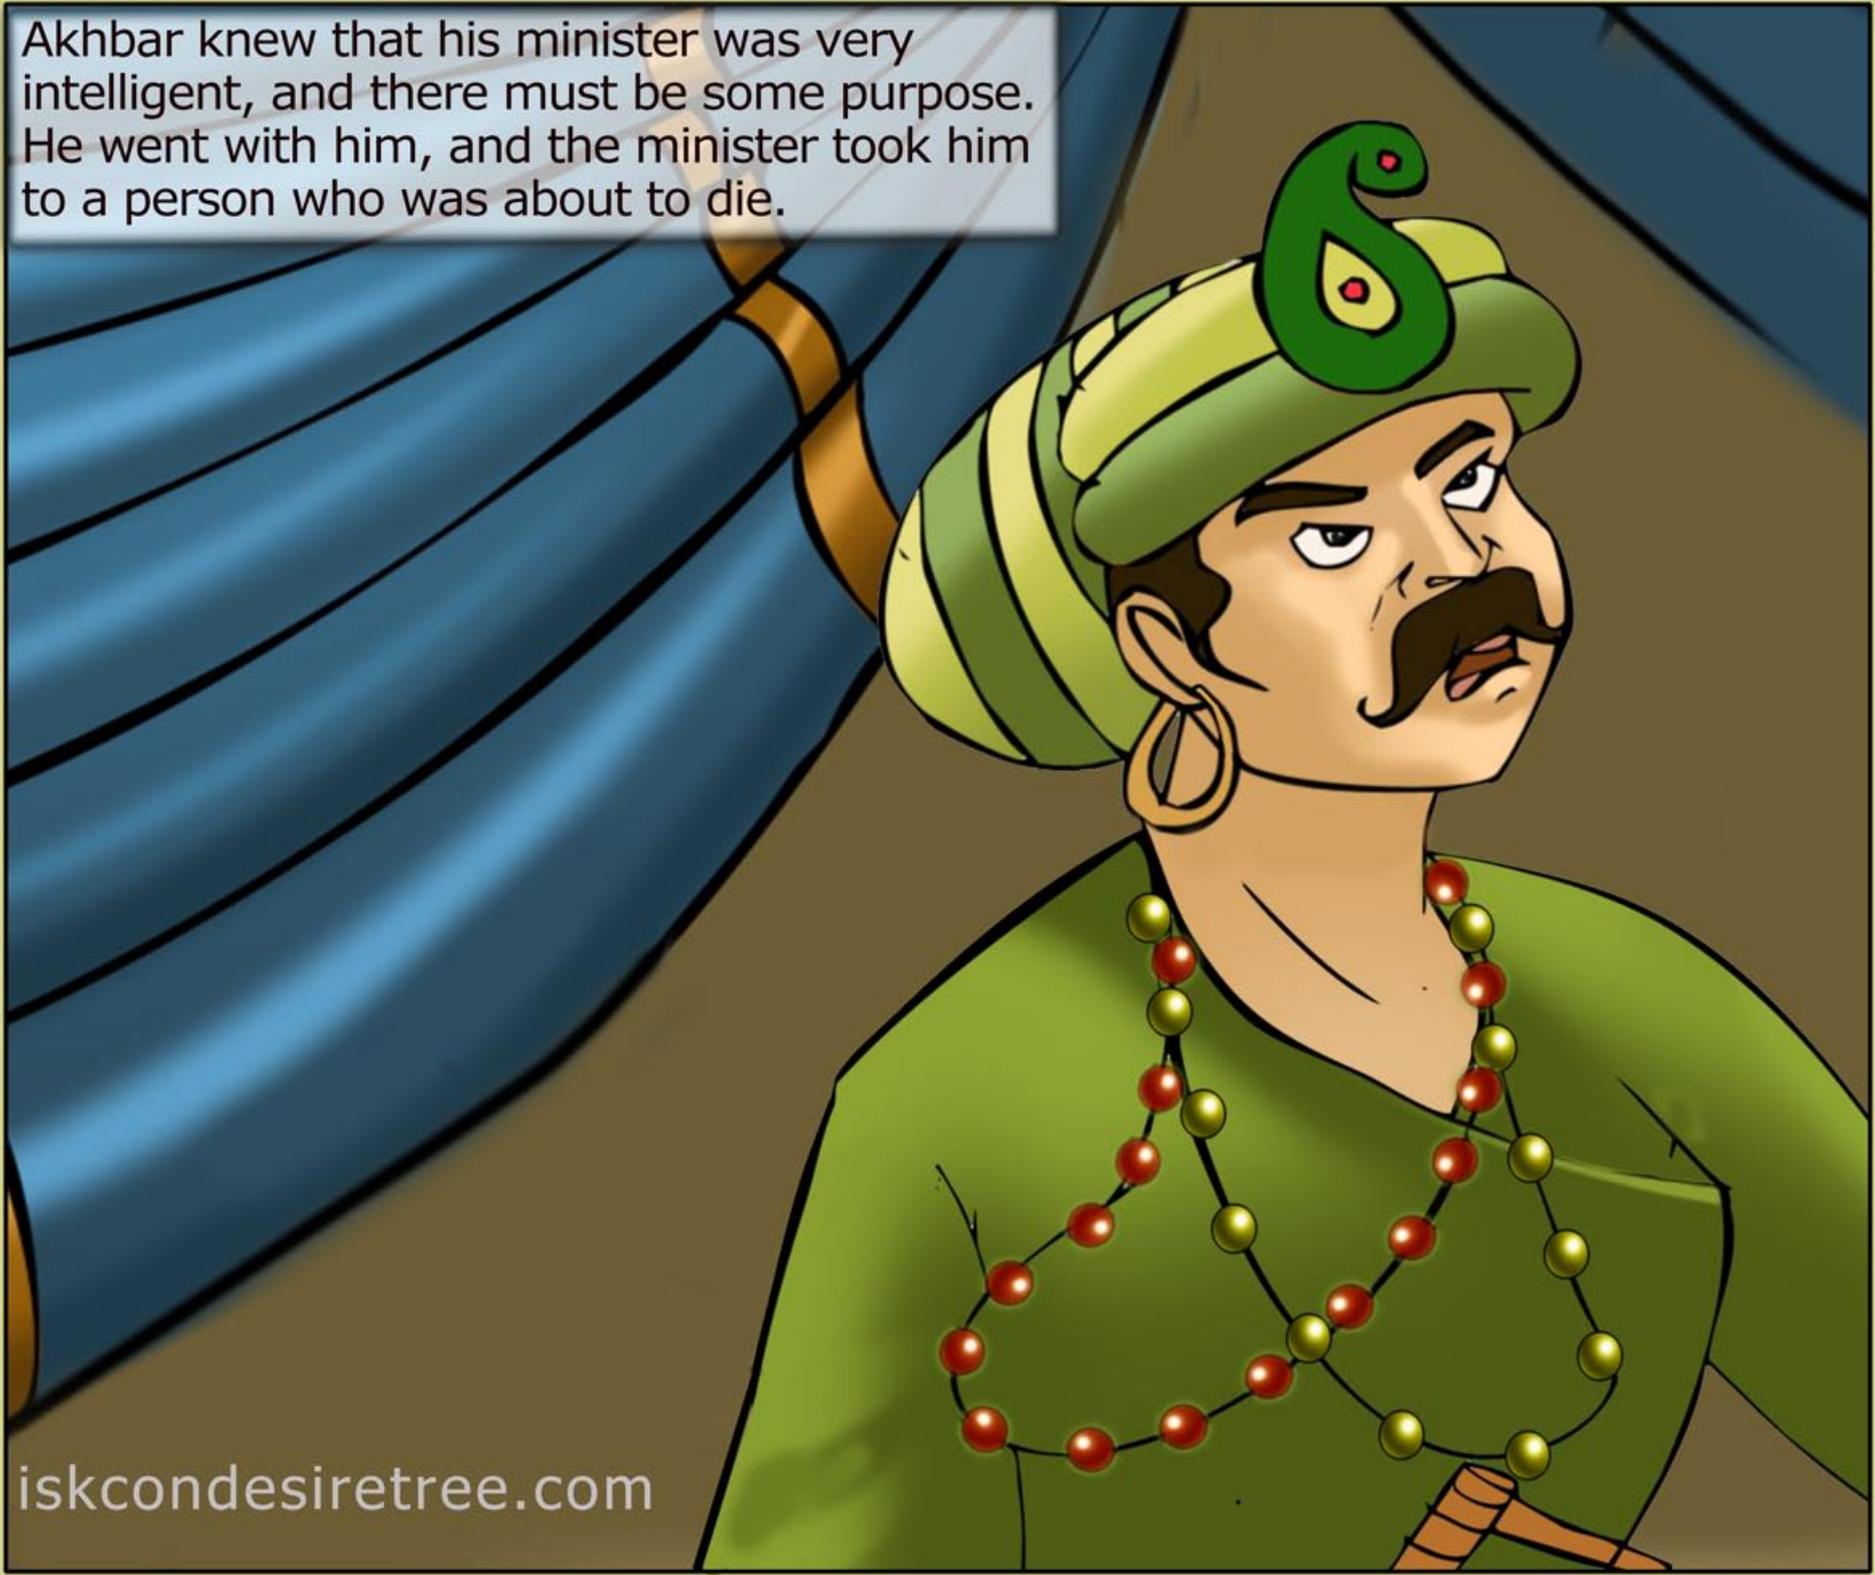

I have a humble
plea to you oh
my master.

What is that?

Please I would request you and your daughter to come with me.

Akhbar knew that his minister was very intelligent, and there must be some purpose. He went with him, and the minister took him to a person who was about to die.

In a small house there was an old man about to die.

Oh my master,
kindly have a
close look on
this person's face.

So Akhbar noticed that as his young daughter was entering, the dying man was looking at her young daughter.

Yes, what he said is true. Up to the last point of death the desire is there to see
the face of a young girl.

MORAL :

If one does not use his youthful years for Kṛṣṇa conscious austerity, then his senses will be uncontrolled and even when is aged, many lusty desires will remain in the heart, but he won't be able to do anything about it.
