

A Test of Birbal

Once the Shah of Persia hearing about Birbal's intelligence wanted to test him.

Send a request note to Akbar that Birbal be permitted to visit our court.

Akbar's Court

Oh! I am so happy and honored that the Shah of Persia wants to see our Birbal.

Birbal, I am proud of you, and I want you to visit the Persian capital

Its great opportunity for you.

Birbal left for Persian capital

Birbal reached the Persian capital

Are you Birbal?

Yes...

Our king is waiting for you!
Please go to the court

As soon as the Birbal reached the Persian capital he was sent to meet the Prince...

When he reached the audience chamber, to see the Shah he saw many glittering figures dressed alike.

Any one of them could be the Shah!

Birbal looked for a while keenly and went and bowed to the real Shah.

It is amazing!

Birbal, how did you recognize me?

When I looked around, I found everyone to be looking at you. Only you were not looking at anyone. At once I felt you would be the real Shah of Persia.

MORAL :

Everyone looks to the leader; therefore he should be of exemplary Character.
