

Brahmin who knew many Languages

*Instructive Stories from teachings of His Divine Grace
A. C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada
Founder Acharya of International Society for Krishna Consciousness*

Once there was a brahmana who knew many languages

He came to the court and started to talk in many languages and no one could find which was his language.

ॐ शंभु
ॐ शंभु

Oh dear brahmana! Which language do you belong to?

If you can find out my language, then you are very clever.

What might be his language?

There was a joker in the king's court who was very cunning and crooked by name Tenaliraman, He was from Tenali, a village in Andhra Pradesh.

If you can find the mother tongue of the brahmin I will give you thousand gold coins.

Don't worry my Master, I will find it for you tonight ?

So in the evening when the pandit was walking in the garden, Tenaliraman covered himself with a big blanket and sat on a tree.

When the pandit walked below, Tenaliram jumped on him. The pandit was frightened.

Oh my God !

He exclaimed in Malayalam, thus his real language was found.

MORAL :

Philosophers may be speaking so much high philosophy, but then if they get emotional or angry, sometimes their real motive comes out.