

Bhaktā Būrfī

Feeds

The Būll

Told By: Bhakta

Kṛṣṇa Saṅga

© 1997

One day Bhakta Burfi was asked to feed the Bull.

Everyone else was scared of this bull, because he had big horns and was always in a bad mood.

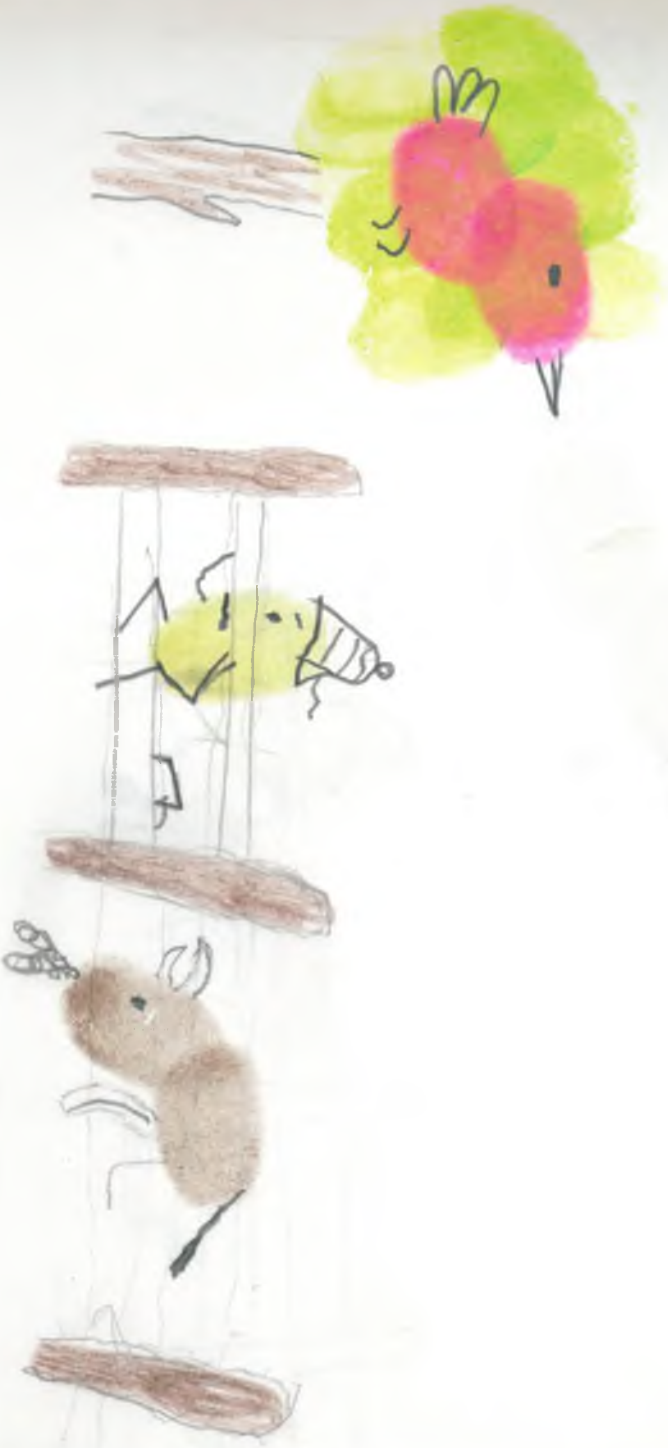

If anyone ever came into his pen he would chase them out.

Bhakta Bansi walked into the bull's pen carrying a bucket of grains.

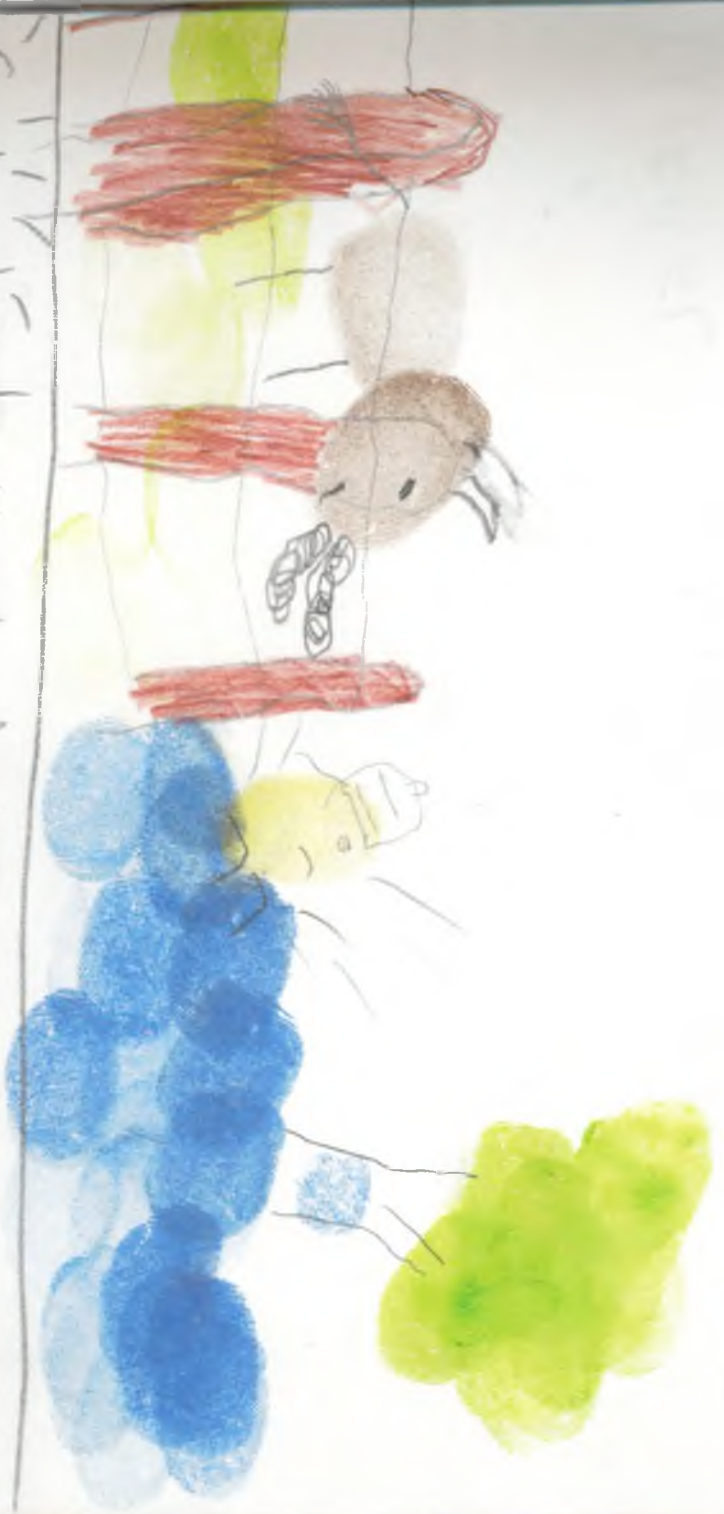

When the bull saw him, he came running. Bhakta Burfi was so scared that he dropped the bucket and started to run.

Bhakta Burti: suddenly felt a big bump and found himself flying into the air over the fence and

Splash! He landed right in the middle of the creek.

MORRAL:

(10)

Never trust an animal with horns!

THE END

Bhaktia
and the Bull

Bhaktia
Burf!

