There were four bulls who were good friends and always lived closeby and graze together.

A lion used to watch them from a distance and wanted to eat them.

But the lion did not take the risk of attacking them when they were together as he knew that all four of them together will defeat him.

The lion was very desperate to eat the bulls. So he thought of a plan.

He started spreading unkind rumours about the bulls and he did that in such a way as if the bulls were themselves speaking ill about each other.

The bulls heard the rumours and were affected by that.

They became so distrustful of each other that they separated out.

This is what the lion was waiting for. He had good time attacking one bull at a time and attacked all four of them one by one.

MORAL :

We have to always stay together and then maya cannot work her conspiracy upon us.

Devotees should not hear & get effected by rumours.
