The Third incarnation of Lord Krishna

One time, many millions of years ago, the earth was plunged deep into the Garbodhaka Ocean. Lord Brahma sat and thought about what could be done to save the earth. Suddenly, a small boar, no bigger than the size of a thumb, sprang out of his right nostril. It immediately started growing until it had reached a gigantic form. He roared loudly but the demigods were not afraid. They knew that it was the Supreme Lord, assuming this form for the good of the world.

The Boar, Varahadev, dived deep into the ocean. He had a very good sense of smell, and was able to locate the earth under the water. As He lifted the earth up, He was attacked by a very vicious demon named Hiranyaksha. Hiranyaksha was the twin brother of Hiranyakashipu and was every bit as terrible. Varahadev was furious and He quickly placed the earth back up in the sky and went to fight the demon. Hiranyaksha fought eagerly but he was no match for Lord Varahadev. The Lord killed the fierce demon easily.
