

I know Krishna

There are so many Indians who are quick to say,
"I know Krsna, I know Krsna." There is a story in this regard.

There was once a man who every day brought water to the temple of Lord Jagannatha.

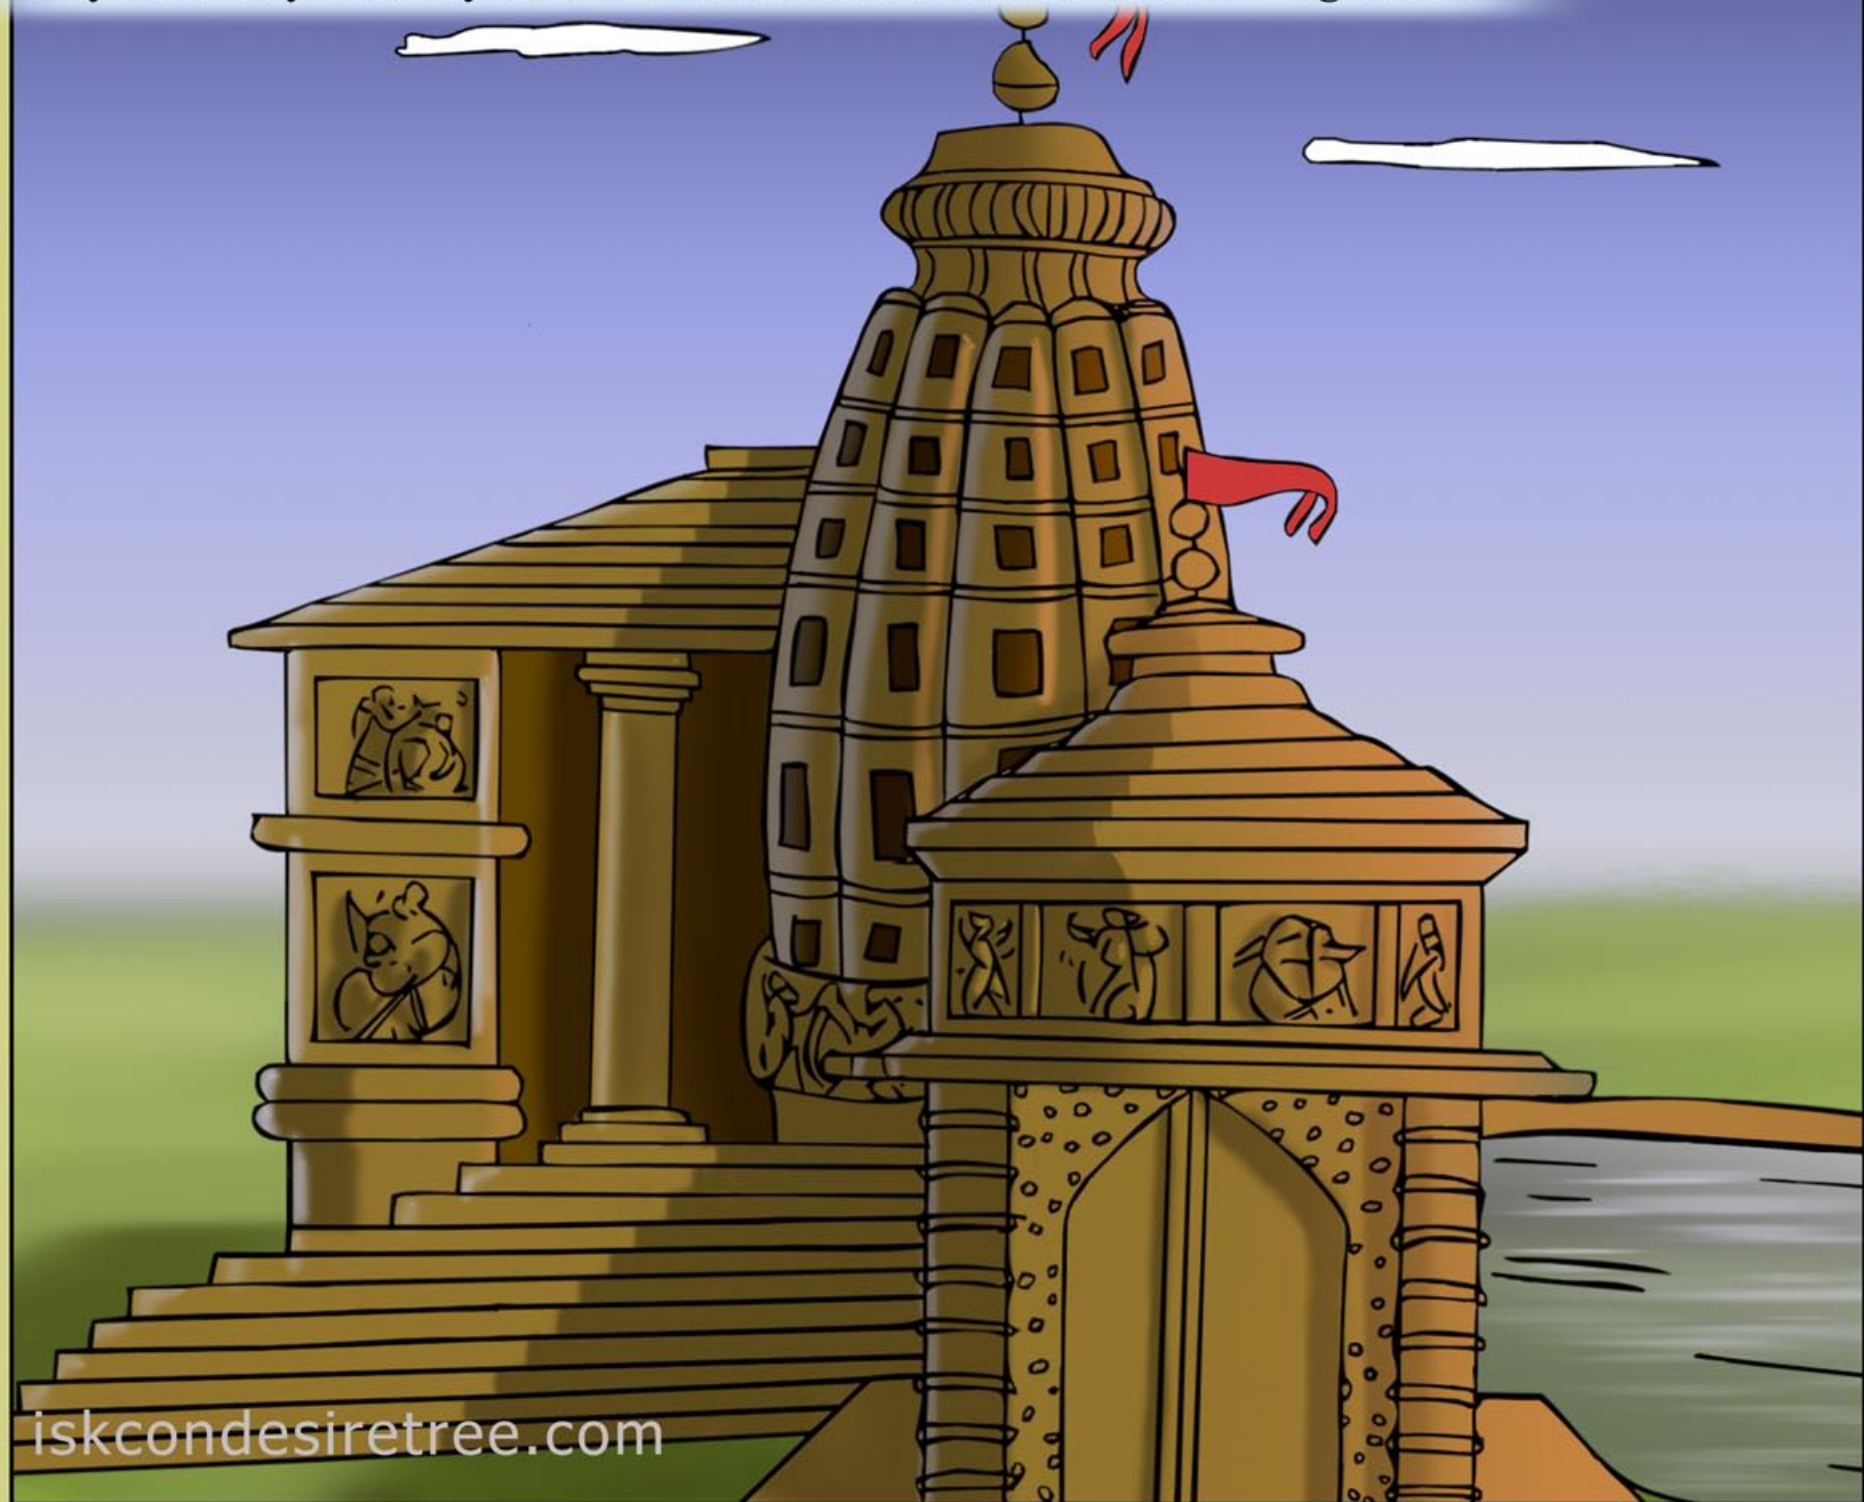

I don't need to see
Lord Jagannatha.

I come here every day
and so I can see Him any time
I want. Let others see Him

Day after day went by and the man never went to see Lord Jagannatha.

Finally the man died without once seeing the Lord.

MORAL :

We have to take advantage of our fortunate situation, and take to Krsna consciousness thus perfecting our lives.
