

IF THERE IS MONEY,
THERE IS INTELLIGENCE

One man asked another man..

Are you intelligent?

The second man started to look in his pockets.

The first man asked....

Why are you looking in your pockets?

The second man said...

Well, if there is any money there

That means I'm intelligent.

The second man said...

Well, there is money and hence I am intelligent.

MORAL :

We may be busy preaching, but if there is no money in temples, then where is the intelligence.
