Dear Parents,

When we see design, appreciation for the designer is a spontaneous reaction. The world we live in, is resplendent with intelligent design; but how often do we pause to think of the intelligent designer, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Sri Krishna?

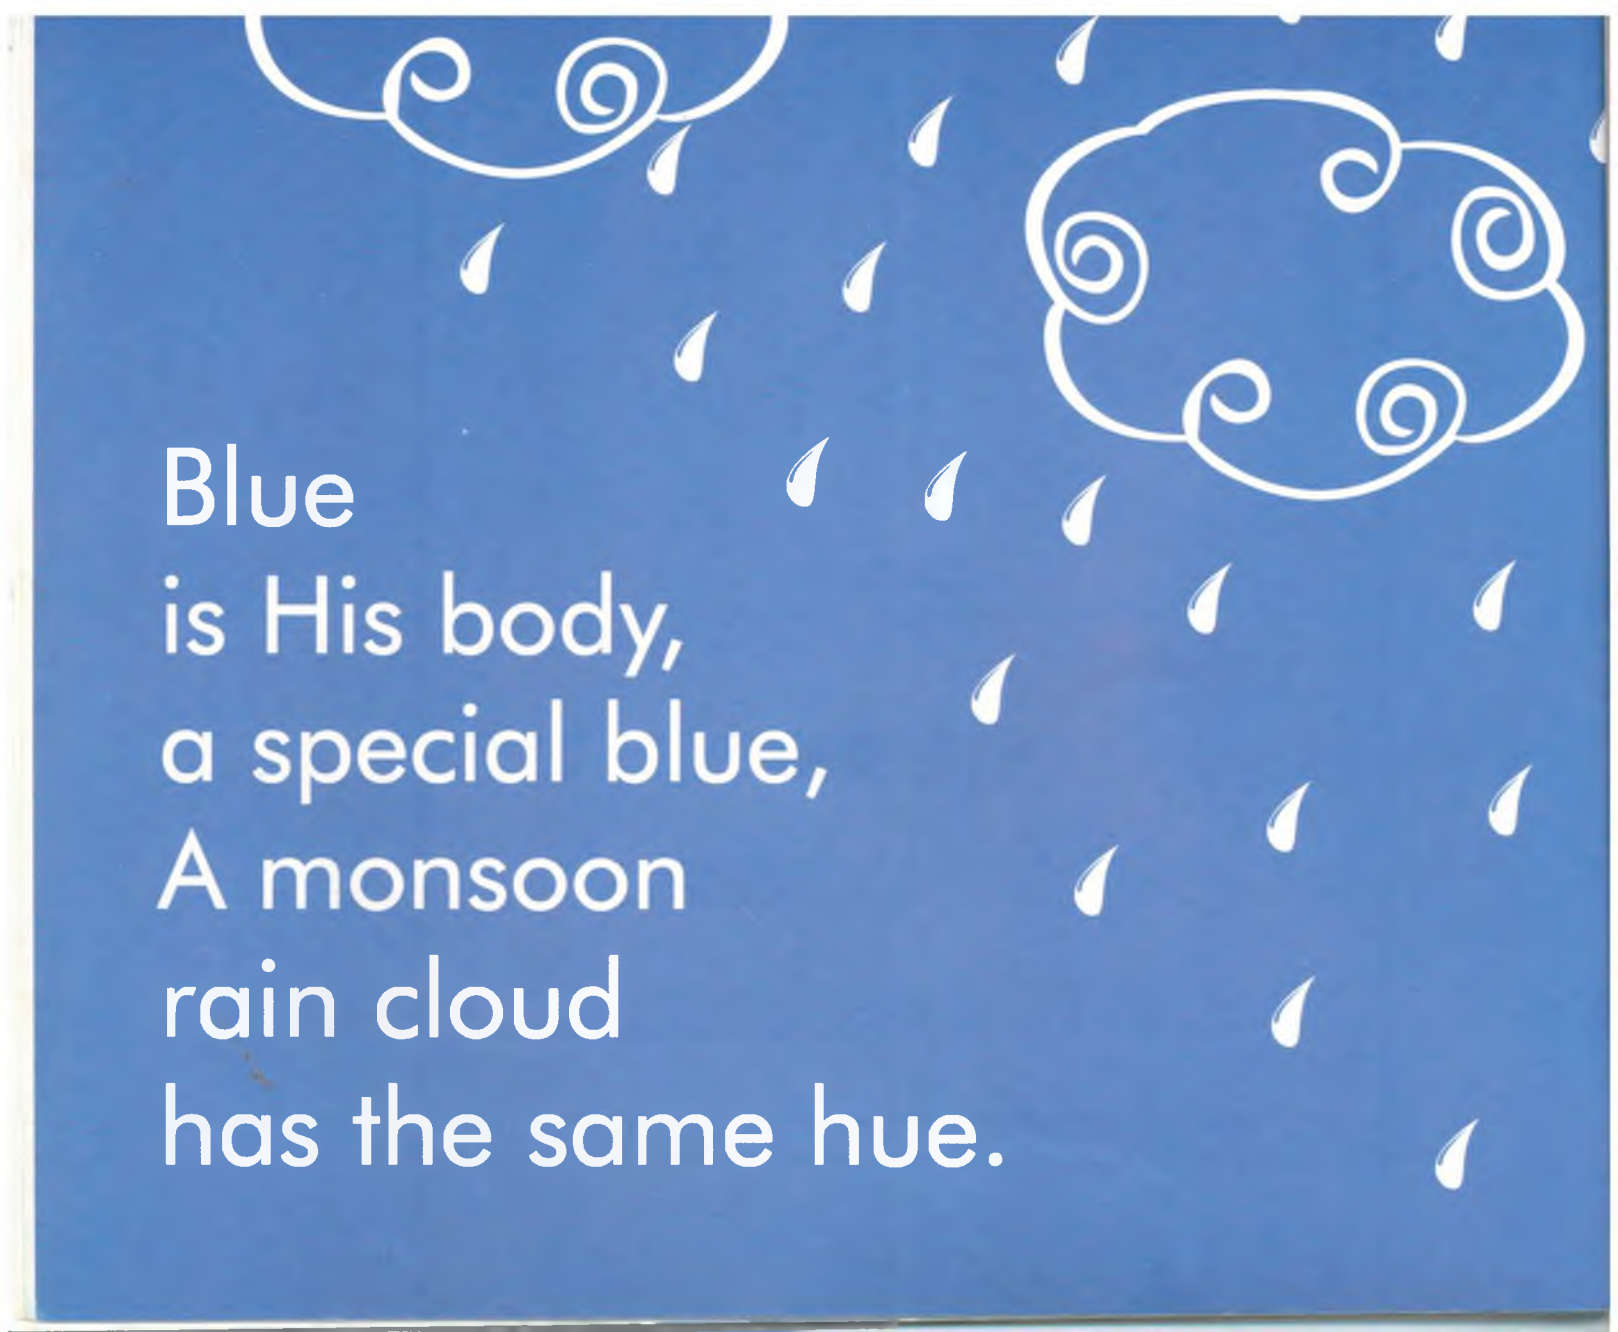

In the Bhagavad Gita 10.41, Krishna says, 'Know that all beautiful, glorious and mighty creations spring from but a spark of my splendour'.

Everything has it's irrevocable connection to the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Sri Krishna. This book is our endeavor to help children see that connection from the very beginning.

Hare Krishna!

The background is a solid blue color. There are two white, stylized rain clouds. The cloud on the right is larger and contains several small white swirls. The cloud on the left is partially cut off by the edge of the frame. Numerous white raindrops of varying sizes are scattered across the blue background, appearing to fall from the clouds.

Blue
is His body,
a special blue,
A monsoon
rain cloud
has the same hue.

Red are His lips
like bimba fruit.

Brown is His long bamboo flute.

Black are His flowing shining curls

White are His teeth like glowing pearls.

Pink are His rosy cheeks
so sweet,
So are the soles
of His lotus feet.

Yellow are the garments
He does wear

Green is the peacock feather
in His hair.

Green are the leaves of the Tulasi tree, Offered at His Lotus feet we see.

Diamonds, rubies, precious stones
In shimmering silver, glittering gold Bracelets, anklets and necklace Matching with His beautiful dress.

Red and yellow and orange and pink Purple and white and blue as ink

Many coloured flowers
the very very best In the garland swinging on His chest.

The world is such a colourful place
Reminding us of Krishna's grace,

Every colour, shade
and hue
Krishna it is connected to You.
