

The following story has 20 mistakes in it. You must correct them by using the following marks. If you do not follow these instructions, I will take points off.

Put an x on any incorrect punctuation; write in the proper punctuation. If any punctuation is missing, put it where it belongs.

Put a line through incorrectly used or misspelled words and write the correct word or spelling above that word.

Put = under a letter that should be capitalized.

Last rathyatra, me and my freinds chanted and danced the whole way. It was realy ecstatic!

After the parade, we took prasadam. It were the best I had ever ate. I felt so stuffed that I couldnt even move! I tasted my friends pakoras chutney, and sweets and they where good, but mine were better!

They're was alot going on at the stage - the Manipuri dancers from manipura were their and there were some really good puppet shows some of the devotees' led an ecstatic kirtan and we were jumpping up and down like anything. I think this was the bestest Rathyatra Ive ever been tol

For the second part of the test, I want you to write on the separate sheet of paper I have given you. I want you to write a character sketch that must be at least 2 paragraphs long. You must write about someone in this room. Being silly or gross will get you an "F" so be careful. Be serious. You will receive 2 grades for this paper: one is for what you write the character sketch and the second is for punctuation, capitalization, spelling, etc. Carefully proofread your work ,
