

There are 25 mistakes in the following story. Read the story and then make the proper corrections, Put punctuation and capital letters where they belong by putting a slash \ through the incorrect letter and then capitalize it above the word. Put a circle around where the incorrect punctuation is and put in the correct punctuation. If a word is misspelled, put a line through the incorrect word and write the correct word above it. To show where a new paragraph begins, put a ¶ in front of it. After this, write an ending to the story. It should be Krsna conscious. It cannot be foolish or you will get an "F". It does not have to be very long. Points will be taken off for incorrect spelling, punctuation, sentence structure, etc. Points will also be taken off if you do not follow the above instructions properly. Write very neatly. Take your time and proofread your work carefully. Hare Krsna.

* or where it's missing

My sister and
Me and my sister went outside too play last monday. It were such a nice day.

We thought that we would go brush the cows ferst so we slowly walkt through the tall grass and started to brush the to young calves.

They were so cute and were so fuzzy. They was just borne a few months ago.

They were happy to see us. They licked hour faces and then they licked there bodys We brusht them for a long time and than we left.

We went into the forrest to play. The trees was so big that my frend and me felt really tiny! We played rama and Laksmana with our bows and arrows. we pretended to kil that demon Ravana. It was so much fun!

We started to go home when all of a sudden.....

There are 25 mistakes in the following story. Read the story and then make the proper corrections, Put punctuation and capital letters where they belong by putting a slash \ through the incorrect letter and then capitalize it above the word. Put a circle around where the incorrect punctuation is and put in the correct punctuation. If a word is misspelled, put a line through the incorrect word and write the correct word above it. To show where a new paragraph begins, put a ¶ in front of it. After this, write an ending to the story. It should be Krsna conscious. It cannot be foolish or you will get an "F". It does not have to be very long. Points will be taken off for incorrect spelling, punctuation, sentence structure, etc. Points will also be taken off if you do not follow the above instructions properly. Write very neatly. Take your time and proofread your work carefully. Hare Krsna.

* or where it's missing

My sister and I outside to Monday was Me and my sister went outside to play last Monday. It were such a nice day.

We thought that we would go brush the cows first so we slowly walked through the tall grass and started to brush the two young calves.

They were so cute and were so fuzzy. They were just born a few months ago.

They were happy to see us. They licked our faces and then they licked their bodies. We brushed them for a long time and then we left.

We went into the forest to play. The trees were so big that my friend and me felt really tiny! We played Rama and Laksmana with our bows and arrows. We pretended to kill that demon Ravana. It was so much fun!

¶ We started to go home when all of a sudden.....