Once, when Krsna and Balarama were playing with Their friends, all the boys joined Balarama and told mother Yasoda that Krsna had eaten clay. On hearing this, mother Yasoda caught hold of Krsna's hand and said, "My dear Krsna, why have You eaten earth in a solitary place? Just see, all Your friends including Balarama are complaining about You." Being afraid of His mother, Krsna replied, "My dear mother, all these boys, including My elder brother Balarama, are speaking lies against Me. I have never eaten clay. My elder brother Balarama, while playing with Me today, became angry, and therefore He has joined with the other boys to complain against Me. They have all combined together to complain so you will be angry and chastise Me. If you think they are truthful, then you can look within My mouth to see whether I have taken clay or not." His mother replied, "All right, if You have actually not taken any clay, then just open Your mouth. I shall see."

When the Supreme Personality of Godhead Krsna was so ordered by His mother, He immediately opened His mouth just like an ordinary boy. Then mother Yasoda saw within that mouth the complete opulence of creation

Krishna Poem

by Monica Narang

Age 12

Krishna killed the evil demon Kansa and freed His parents.

Rasa was a wonderful dance performed by Krishna and the gopis.

Impressively killed many demons who tried to harm people.

Simply caring and loving for His devotees.

Happily, Krishna played with His friends in the forest.

Naughty Krishna stole butter from the pots of the gopis.

Always takes food or water given with complete love and devotion.
