

THE ASTROLOGER

INSTRUCTIVE STORIES FROM SRILA PRABHUPADA

An astrologer was so busy gazing at the stars

Suddenly he fell into a ditch while walking

Help Help!

A passer by saw him and said...

Friend what happened?
Why have you fallen in this ditch?

I was gazing at the stars and hence I did not see this ditch on my path

Friend, you should let the stars go their own way

Look down while walking and not up

Mind your own business
