

ISKCON BOARD OF EXAMINATIONS
STANDARDS APPLICABLE TO CLOSED-BOOK ASSESSMENT SESSIONS

- Students should approach the closed-book assessment in a mood of loving devotional service to Krishna and Srila Prabhupada without a spirit of false competition, enviousness, or the desire for prestige.
- No notes, computers, cell phones, student handbooks or sastric texts may be accessed during the closed-book assessment. Computers and cell phones must be turned off at all times.
- Students found to be accessing notes, computers, cell phones, student handbooks, sastric texts, or communicating in any way with others during the closed-book assessment, will be subject to penalty according to the policies established by the ISKCON Board of Examinations in the accompanying document, “Policy on Cheating and Penalties”.
- Students may consult dictionaries during the closed-book assessment.
- Students for whom the language of the exam is not their native language may be allowed extra time.
